TRUE COLORS

What are the TRUE COLORS of Liberty Union High School? Cardinal and Gold have been the traditional school colors since 1902 when Liberty first opened its doors. Since then, many thousands of students have passed through Liberty. What have they left behind? What are the students of the 1986-1987 school year going to leave behind?

Webster’s Dictionary defines the word true as “genuine or authentic.” Color is defined as “general nature, character.” With these definitions in mind, what then are the TRUE COLORS of Liberty?

These few pages that constitute the 1987 LION Yearbook are dedicated to the purpose of providing a small glimpse into the spirit and friendship that are the TRUE COLORS of Liberty Union High School.

TRUE COLORS were definitely in fashion for those with real school spirit. Homecoming Week activities have always illustrated the true Liberty. Students and teachers alike can join in the fun and excitement that are the high point of the Fall Semester.
Mr. Bill Batze has always been a spirited guy, especially during Homecoming Week. But this year he had an extra reason to be jolly! He was selected as the 1986 Homecoming Grand Marshall (nice hat!).
From smiling faces of beautiful girls and handsome guys to colorful floats, students celebrated the 1986 Homecoming Day. Dafne Arteaga and Shawn Schwitters were crowned King and Queen while the Junior Class captured first place in the float competition.

Shawn Schwitters fights back tears of happiness as he is congratulated by Jason Nunn and others. Shawn was announced the Homecoming King by Wendi Anderson (his girl friend). After walking around the candidates, Wendi suddenly made her announcement by leaping in Shawn’s lap.
Starry-eyed Dafne Arteaga still looks stunned after her announcement as the 1986 Homecoming Queen. On the facing page, Shawn Schwitters (Homecoming King) receives congratulations from excited students. Below, the candidates for Homecoming King pose for a formal picture. To the left is the Senior Class Float (third place).
Everyone was involved in Homecoming Activities this year. Here are a few of those spirited individuals that participated. The pie eating contest is always a favorite for those with good appetites. Tug-of-War, teddy bears, sombreros and jerseys all showed TRUE COLORS.

Students and Staff were all involved in the 1986 Homecoming activities. However, Bill Batze, does have some special insight into some extracurricular, nocturnal activities that were planned but never executed. Michelle Dominguez and Wendi Kelsey had to put some finishing touches on their spirited faces on Cardinal and Gold Day. Kathy Hilburn and Robin Galey, both Top Ten girls, enjoy the Homecoming game from their special bleachers on the playing field.
Miss Marian Canepa turns around in disgust after Joe Comilli, Dafne Arteaga, and Marty Stanton made certain censored comments about the Freshman Class, of which Miss Canepa is advisor along with Mr. Dennis Buckley. The subject of sleeping arrangements while guarding the Freshman float was also discussed. Bill Batze is congratulated by Mark Wadnizak and Wayne Ganti, very close personal friends, after his Grand Marshall selection.
As always, the weather was beautiful during Homecoming Week but especially good on "Jersey, Hat and Sunglasses Day." Lisa Thompson and Brett Swisher bask in the sunshine before the lunch time activities of the day get started. The good weather lasted for most of the winter, however, too much of a good thing is not so good after all. Low rainfall made talk of a drought common but during early spring things began to look much better for Brentwood's farmers.

Three excellent examples of the TRUE COLORS of Liberty, Bill Batze, Dafne Arteaga (Homecoming Queen), and Shawn Schwitters (Homecoming King) pose for an Annual Staff photographer outside of Stonebarger Gymnasium after the Homecoming Rally. Dafne and Shawn were voted to their esteemed positions by the entire student body during the week of Homecoming, and the results were announced at the Rally.
Cathy Friddy and Melanie Bottoms, charter members of the football team, try to catch some of the action during the Homecoming games while taking stats on the players. The excitement was intense during both the homecoming rally and game, but erupted after it was announced that Shawn Schwitters was chosen as the 1986 Homecoming King.
Michelle Trebino, the 1985 Homecoming Queen is driven around the playing field before the Homecoming Game begins. David Martinez and Lisa Thompson anxiously watch the Liberty Lions battle against their opponents in the chilly night air. Free wheeling across the campus, Kyle Cursi shows his TRUE COLORS during one of the many activities.

Top Ten boys and girls sat in special reserved seating during the Homecoming Game, but tuxes and gowns just don't protect as well as a blanket when it comes to chilly fall weather. Tricycling is the best way to keep warm, as Kyle Cursi demonstrates.
Cheerleaders can work up a big thirst during a game, so they're allowed at least one break during a game. Patricia Boardman did her share of cheers at the Homecoming Game, but remember, only one break. Dafne Arteaga is crowned as the 1986 Homecoming Queen during the halftime festivities.

Almost every club on campus participated in the Homecoming parade with either a float or truck full of students or both. On Homecoming day classes let out early for games and rally. More than 1,000 students attended the activities which concerned many staff, since the number exceeded the maximum allowed in the gymnasium.
From a can drive, to a pretty young lady, to the total acceptance of the new vocational students, the campus showed its many faces to the world. The ASB collected aluminum cans to finance activities; while the King vocational students became Liberty vocational students; and a pretty girl's picture speaks for itself.
Seniors break the "Dull Barrier" set up by the juniors at the Homecoming Rally. The seniors went on to win the most prestigious rally of the year. Liberty Mascot take a few minutes to pose during the Homecoming Rally. Class of '90 members work hard on their first high school float ever. Guided by advisors, Mr. Dennis Buckley and Ms. Marian Canepa, the freshmen were successful in capturing second place on Friday of Homecoming.
The Class of 1987 enjoyed a successful four years at Liberty. As the newly entering freshmen in the Fall of 1983, the class was led by Cindi Johnson, president; Christine Chesser, vice-president; Carna Rodriguez, secretary; and Stacey Knoblauch, treasurer. Greeting the arriving freshmen were advisors who would remain with the class for four years; they were Mrs. Jeanne Partridge and Mr. Rod Beaver. As the newest class on campus, the frosh had a candy sale, washed cars, and sold hats. Their first float placed fourth in the Homecoming Parade. As sophomores, the Class of '87, got their act together and placed first in the float competition. They were guided by Carna Rodriguez, president; Shawn Schwitters, vice-president; Korin Ghiselli, secretary; and Dafne Arteaga, treasurer. The class sold candy to raise money and crowned Dafne Arteaga, queen and David Martinez, king, of the Sophomore/Junior Prom. Korin Ghiselli took over as president for the new juniors; she was assisted by Robin Galey, vice-president; Abbe Gregory, secretary; and Michele Mercado, treasurer. The class was again successful at Homecoming as they captured first place in the float competition and won the Spirit Trophy. They hosted the Top Ten Dance and had four candy sales to swell their treasury. In the spring they co-hosted the Sophomore/Junior Prom. For the second year in a row, Korin Ghiselli led the Class of '87 as they attained "SENIOR" status. She was helped by fellow officers: Abbe Gregory, vice-president; Sonia Valle, secretary; and Lorena Osegueda, treasurer. The seniors crowned Dafne Arteaga queen of Homecoming and Shawn Schwitters, king. The other members of the Homecoming Court were Cindy and Kathy Hilburn, Kim and Kiersten Read, Lisa Thompson, Carna Rodriguez, Robin Galey, Abbe Gregory, Lisa Duncan, George Pickron, Rick Lobo, Kyle Cursi, Jason Nunn, Brett Swisher, David Martinez, David Arevalo, Lance Foreman, and Ed Paguaga. The seniors earned a third place finish in the Homecoming Float Competition. The class held their Senior Ball at the Oakland Hilton and had a new twist with a midnight buffet. Closing out the year, the seniors returned to an old tradition and held a Baccalaureate ceremony on June 7 in Stonebarger Gymnasium (see following poem that was read there). Closing out their four years of high school, the Class of 1987 walked onto Ohmsted Field for Graduation ceremonies at 6 p.m. on June 12. Mimi Montanez was valedictorian while Raquel Gensler was salutatorian. Jaime Sims was the graduation speaker. Farewell CLASS OF 1987; you're gone but never forgotten.

WASTED TIME

Look at all of us, here we stand, With our diplomas in our hands. I can't believe we're on our own, And we wish it weren't the end. How do we begin? We don't know if we can. Who'd ever thought we'd be this far down the line, But we all know it has been constantly on our minds. We're afraid it has all been wasted time. Now we live from day to day and we dream about tomorrow. And the hours seem like minutes, and the shadows come to stay. But we try to make them go away. We could have done so many things, if we could only stop and take the time from wondering what we left behind, and from worrying about this wasted time. Friends have come and gone, and the years keep rushing on. We will remember what we were told before we go out on our own, sometimes to keep to keep it together you've got to leave it alone. So my friends can get on with their lives, and I can get on with mine, And maybe somebody we will find, that it wasn't really wasted time.

Class of 87 Enjoys Senior Ball at the Hilton

Seniors and their dates enjoy one of the slow dances at the Hilton in Oakland.

Robin Galey, Carra Rodriguez, Mike Manning, and Wayne Gantt enjoy talking between dances.

Posing with their dates just inside the entrance to the Hilton are Elizabeth Simanek and Krista Krogh.

Ray Turreitta really seems to be getting into the swing of things.

Christer Sjorgren and Kurt Heitmeyer enjoy the midnight buffet.

Jason Hensel, Ana Child, Shelia Robinson, Sean Pelletier, Cindy Hilburn and Lance Foreman arrive.

Alice Herrick, Kiersten Read, and Miapi Waller enjoy a good laugh together.

Leaving their limo are Kevin Cordua, Paula Krey, Kara Cox, and Adrian Orozco.

David Reil and Carma Rodriguez chat with Mr. Jack Ferril.

Heidi Vincent and her date Bill Gill.

Marty Stanton, Lance Foreman, Cindy Hilburn, Randy Lindscheid, and Raquel Gensler rest.

Toni King and Wade Payne step out of their limo for the Senior Ball.

Dancing the evening away, this sophomore couple enjoy the Homecoming Dance. This annual dance marks the end of Homecoming Week and is held traditionally on the Saturday night following the Friday night football game. This year’s king and queen were Shawn Schwitters and Dafne Arteaga. The dance was sponsored by the Senior Class.

Whooping it up, these enthusiastic sophomores show their class spirit as they ride on the bed of the truck that pulled their fourth place float. Though Homecoming evening was cool, the rain that had threatened off-and-on all week held off allowing the students to enjoy themselves fully.

Sandra Rowell, Danielle Seeley, Kerrie Way, Shantel Leighton, and Nicole Sousa show that building a float can be fun as well as work.
Led by Jason Brown, president, the Class of 1988 spent its third year at Liberty trying to raise money by selling M&Ms and Mambas. Jason was assisted by Matt Curtis, vice-president; Anne Gerry, secretary; and Chris Addington, treasurer. Class advisors for the third year in a row were Mr. Tim McHugh and Mrs. Joanne Nash.

The juniors got their act together and beat out the other three classes to capture first place in the Homecoming Parade float competition. Their float featured a giant wave and surf-board.

Combining with the Class of '89, the juniors co-hosted the Sophomore-Junior Prom. For the first time ever the Prom was held off campus as the two classes turned Veteran’s Hall into a palace for the evening.

With the theme “Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death!” the Class of 1989 worked hard Homecoming Week to build their second high school float. The sophomores were led by Ryan Ng, president; Kim Trebin, vice-president; Robbin Schwitters, secretary; and Chris Calabrese, treasurer. The class was ably advised by Ms. Jan McAlister and Mr. Robert Reed.

With a theme of “Friends and Lovers,” the sophomores combined with the juniors to move the Prom off campus. The sophomores selected Dana Clemons, Debbie Darone, Tiffany Parsons, Sheri Stoffel, and Wendy Kelsey as their queen candidates. They chose as king candidates Kevin Blubaugh, Brian Swisher, Danny Newberry, Chris Davis, and Steve Cacho. During the evening they crowned Wendy and Brian, king and queen.

The sophomores sold flowers and candy in an effort to raise money to fatten their treasury for their senior year.

The school and students welcomed the newest class to Liberty last fall as the Class of 1990 entered high school. The freshmen selected their officers as follows: Nicole Souza, president; Jeannine Cecchini, vice-president; Karen Lindsay, secretary; and David Sadler, treasurer. The class was superbly led by two “old-time” advisors Ms. Marian Canepa and Mr. Dennis Buckley.

The freshmen surprised a couple of other classes as they edged out both the seniors and sophomores to win second place in the float competition at Homecoming. The class worked hard and tough hours to turn a semi trailer into a work of art. The freshmen used the theme “Burn Benicia.”

Working hard to build a treasury for their senior year, the Class of '90 hosted two candy sales, sold bumper stickers, and washed cars on the day of the Senior Ball.

The classes worked hard to make the 1986-87 an enjoyable year for all concerned.
Students Enjoy Many Activities on Campus
Kelsey, Swisher Reign over Soph/Junior Prom

King and Queen, Wendy Kelsey and Brian Swisher, enjoy a dance together after the announcement that they had been selected. The Soph/Junior Prom was held off campus at the Veteran's Hall.

Liberty's only championship in sports this year was in Girls' Varsity Basketball. The girls went 13-1 in FAL to tie with Miramonte and share the crown. Nicole Simoni and Paula Hale were named Co-MVP of the FAL. The Varsity team was unsuccessful in play-offs as they dropped their first game to Sunset to end the season.

In spring sports Lion individuals excelled. In swimming the girls' relay made it to North Coast and finished sixteenth while Tara Clark, sophomore, finished third in the 100 freestyle and fourth in the 50. Tara's third-place finish earned her an All-American consideration; her time was 53.16. The relay team consisted of Tara Clark, Shelia Robinson, Nicole Simoni, and Robin Schwitters.

In track, eight members made it to North Coast, five of those went on the the Meet of Champions. Suzy Calahong was named the Varsity girls' Most Valuable Athlete and captured the league crown in the triple jump. Jay Sadler, Most Valuable Athlete for the boys' Varsity, on the FAL's triple jump title earning a trip to the MOC. Also garnering spots to the MOC were Sean Young, Paula Hale, and Michele Stranahan. Michelle Mercado, Bill Bowers, and Rick Derrick also earned spots to the North Coast Meet. Jeanette Valverde was named captain; Lisa Meyer, most inspirational; Brian Smith, jv MVP; Bill Bowers, most inspirational; and Rick Lobo, captain.

Taking a brief look at the Fall Sports: the Varsity football team had a 3-7 record; one of their victories was a 22-0 drubbing of Miramonte while another was a defeat handed to Campolindo, the eventual North Coast Champions. In Cross-Country, David Arevalo was 7th in the FAL meet and 26th at North Coast. Brent Vonforestmeyer went to China over Christmas vacation to run. In soccer it was Matt Ford who captured the Seeno Athlete of the Week Award; he also captured Most Improved and earned honorable mention all-league. Blake Bomben was Most Inspirational and all-league second team. The varsity finished with a 5-7 league mark and was 7-9-1 overall. In volleyball, the varsity, coached by Ms. Linda Ghilarducci, earned a trip to the FAL play-offs.

In Winter Sports: the boys' varsity basketball team became the "cardiac kids" four games in a row as they won in the last seconds of close games. Two of their games went into double overtime. The varsity was paced by hot-shooting David Arevalo, Mark Wadniza, and Sean Schwitters. The girls' jv team had a new coach Mr. Gary Conn. In wrestling Kurt Heitmeyer and Sean Pelletier were named MVP captain was Sean; Brett Swisher earned the coaches award while his brother Brian was tabbed most improved. In jv wrestling, Felipe Argueta was named MVP. Gerald Blotz was named MVP for the jv basketball team.

The Spring Sports saw a lot of busy Lions. The Varsity baseball team finished fourth in league only to lose their play-off game to Campolindo 9-3. David Martin was named MVP and top offensive player; Shawn Schwitters was captain; Greg Patterson, Ohmstede Award; Brian Smith was the top defensive player; and Martin also was the batting champ for the third year in a row. Carlos Ortega was tabbed as the most valuable player in tennis. In golf, Jeff Frigard garnered MVP and was an individual qualifier for North Coast. The golf team finished with an 11-11 overall record and was 8-8 in league play for a fifth place finish. In Varsity softball Stacey Perez was most improved; Stacey Knoblauch, most valuable; Carna Rodriguez, captain; and Sabrina Pelletier, most inspirational. Doug Roderick was named MVP in jv baseball.

Sports closed out the year with their Spring Dessert and of course spring football practice. GO LIONS!
Shawn Schwitters, tight-end, dives for the ball before it can hit the ground. The action took place in the second quarter with the score tied 0-0.

SCRAMBLE! Members of the DeAnza Dons and the Liberty Lions fight for possession of a loose ball in an away game. The Dons were one of the two new teams in the FAL this season.

Liberty Lion coaches Dennis Henderson and Jerry Lilley look on at one of our great home games. Could we be winning or losing the game?

Tension rises as Jay Lewis tries to struggle free from his opponent. In the background you see Wayne Gantt and Mike Boehner showing their team spirit.

Jason Nunn, Manual Delgado, and Billy Sheffield look out on the team as they play their awesome game. Looking at their faces, it must be a tough or close game.

What a great offense team look at the blocking that they're giving to Shawn Schwitters. Could this lead to a touch down? Shawn is skirting left end.
Jay Lewis goes over the top of the line as he tries to pick up a first down. Darren Foreman leads the blocking for the Lions in an away contest against the DeAnza Dons.

Now here's another good shot of our awesome offense team. Look at how well the coverage is. David Martin is free to carry the ball down the field for a possible touchdown.

Danny Duarte looks back from the action on the field at an away game.

Jason Nunn is throwing one of his great passes down field to a fellow teammate.

Shawn Schwitters signals Touchdown! as Jay Lewis breaks the plane of the goal line in a game against the DeAnza Dons.

Jose Solis tries to stand his opponent up as he hits him just beyond the line of scrimmage for little gain.

Loose Ball! Both the Matadors and Lions seem stunned by the fumble as neither team shows much reaction to the flying football.

Jason Rodgers drops back to pass as his line holds off the opponents with some fine blocking. The JVs were plagued with injuries at key positions.

Good Defense! Edgar Velasco and Humberto Salgado combine to stop their opponent after a short gain in a home contest.

Phil Rodriguez skirts right end and eludes the grasping hands of his Matador opponent.

Phil Rodriguez and Kevin Lewis combine to stop the Matador opponent behind the line of scrimmage. The JVs showed some fine defensive efforts this year.
Chris Davis moves over to make a nice block as Matt Toon drops back to pass of third and four.

Todd Perez and Sal Acosta show fine defensive effort as the team up to stop this runner cold in his tracks.

Nice Catch! Jose Solis leaps to pull down the high pass for a nice gain and a first down.

Blocking along the line Matt Rivera and Dean Treat try to buy some time as Matt Toon scrambles back to set up for a pass play.

Arriving for Homecoming events are Liberty's mascots, Kyle Cursi and Carna Rodriguez.

Wearing his spirit well Marty Stanton is overwhelmed with headgear on Hat and Glasses Day.

Wendy Kelsey applies the finishing touches to Michelle Dominguez's face.

Taking a breather, one of the mascots relaxes at the Homecoming game.

Daiye Arteaga and her father, along with Shawn Schwitters and his mother, pose for pictures during halftime ceremonies.
Ten years into the future, Lisa Thompson, Heidi Vincent, Anne Gerry, Cindy Hillburn, and Wendi Anderson present their career choices.

Dirk Richardson cheers on Mark Smith and the rest of the senior class during Field Day activities.

Back to the future: Raquel Gensler, Kyle Cursi, Carina Rodriguez, and Jason Hensel are hippies for a day.

Montanez, Gensler Lead Seniors at Graduation

Stacey Knoblauch happily receives her diploma.

Valedictorian, Mimi Montanez, graduated No. 1 in her class.

Chere Trice seems very pleased with graduating.

Seniors throw their hats into the air after receiving diplomas.

Lisa Duncan celebrates making it through high school.

Class president, Korrin Chiselli presents the gift to the school.

Mark Mederios wears fresh leis his sister brought from Hawaii on graduation day.

Sean Pelletier enjoys the graduation by blowing soap bubbles.
Principal Jack Ferrill presents the graduating seniors to the Board of Trustees.

Raquel Gensler, salutatorian, walks back to her seat after receiving her diploma.

“Lumpy” Bosch escorts not one but two young ladies to graduation.

After graduation these happy seniors pose for a picture before heading off into the world.

“I Survived Liberty!” Dirk Richardson sums up the feelings of many of the seniors.

Jamie Sims, student speaker, gave an outstanding talk during graduation on June 12.

Mr. William Batze says good-bye to the seniors, many of whom were students of his.

Mr. Rod Beaver, class advisor, leads his half of the graduates onto Ohmstede Field.
EXCUSE ME, WHERE DOES MR. BATZE LIVE?
CLASS OF 87
Princess #12, Tawny Whitner, tries to pass a difficult test.

Grace Touros, as Princess Winnifred, finally sleeps it off!!

By showtime, Mr. Gates needs a shave (not to mention a vacation).

The Queen (Michelle Manko) and ladies (Carin Telle, Kim Metez, and Chrissy McCausland) prepare Winnifred for a deep sleep.

Curtain call: the cast has one last overture.

The Prince (Matt Curtis) pleads “Please mama, can I marry her now?”

The Jester, the Minstrel, and the Wizard hold a court of their own.

Steve Borge, a knight, tries a new step with the Princess.
Eric Overholtzer and Michelle Manko, as the King and Queen, match wits.

Rick Starbuck, as the Minstrel, opens the show.

Mrs. Barbara Ciapponi puts the finishing touches on a costume and still has time for a smile!

By the end of the show, Lora Van Camp, Amelia Berumen, Jennifer Frasier, Arwen Rhodes, Shelly Reed, Kim Metez, and Chrissy McCausland are still ladies in waiting.

The Jester, Mike McDaniel, tries out his “old soft shoe.”

The Wizard, Mike Vestal, and the Queen decide on “sensitivity.”

The King quickly hides the runaways as the knights and ladies nervously look on.

Princess Winnifred discusses the test with Prince Dauntless.
Taking the stage by storm, Brandon Goldman captures the attention of the borders and family in Scene 1.

Eliza Gant (Angela Witt), and brother, Will Pentland (Mike McDaniel), buy and sell real estate. They plan on selling family property.

Brandon Goldman and Angela Witt discuss the failure of their relationship. By the look on Brandon's face, this must have been a dramatic scene.

W.O. Gant drives the boarders away. "So you don't like my wife's coffee?"

Eon Pangburn and Matt Curtis rehearse their love scene.

W.O. bids farewell to the prodigal son Eugene Gant.

W.O. Gant remembers the good 'ol days with Madame Elizabeth (Michelle Dooley).
Eliza Gant secretly deals with property and family business on the phone.

Johanna Peterson, Tony Tobar, and James Chrislock rehearse the death of Ben Gant.

Eugene tries to comfort his ailing brother Ben.

Matt Curtis, as Eugene Gant, confronts Eliza Gant, portrayed by Angela Witt.

The family discusses the role of W.O.'s business.

Luke Gant, portrayed by Sean Williams, comforts his father.

Jake Clatt (Sean McCauley) is very persistent with his affections toward Laura.
'True Colors' Sets Theme for '87 LION

As in the past, the yearbook members spent hard hours deciding on a theme and cover. This year the staff chose "True Colors" as its theme and went with a similar cover to the '86 LION. To carry out the theme, eight more color pages were added to the opening section. Clayton Odell, editor-in-chief, used his artistic talents and designed a totally different opening section. He used larger and fewer pictures, totalized captions, rule lines, and other techniques to add color and excitement to the opening and the yearbook in general. Rule lines were used in other parts of the book as a break between sections and classes. For the first time the staff split the write ups of seniors and other classes. The senior write-up opened the classes section while the other classes write-ups was placed within the section. Another first for the staff was the computer. We switched to IBM and Taylor Publishing Co. and did 99%+ of the yearbook on computers; layouts, index, and copy. We were the only high school in Northern California to use computers completely in this manner. The last major change was the addition of an index for the first time in over ten years. The staff was eager to see the results of all their computer work when the book came out in August.
It is important as an editor to acknowledge those people who help because no one person can put together a yearbook. A yearbook is a total staff commitment. To Michelle Matsutani, chief computer technician, you were the only one who understood what was going on! The rest of us acted like we did but the bottom line was when we had a problem with the computers or programs it was Michelle who had the answer. Super Job Michelle!! To Heather Poertner, business manager, you started in the black and kept us there all year. Great job on both the ads and yearbook sales. To Dave Daly and Taylor Publishing Co., even though we were the new kids on the block we never felt like it. A tremendous thank you for all the help we received; we surely could not have done it without you. To Mr. Bill Batze, advisor, I said it last year and I’ll repeat it; your dedication to the yearbook, staff, students, and teaching in general is unmatched. To the rest of the staff, my heartfelt thanks; you came in on holidays and Saturdays at odd times and worked long hours, the book is yours more than mine. To Mrs. Wanda Keeney, I can never thank you enough for all the tremendous work you did with pictures, sales, and accounts. I will miss those lunch time talks we shared.

To Mrs. Robin Beck, it was terrific the way you handled messages and postage for us, thank you.

To the staff, certificated and classified, thank you for understanding when we had to be out of class or when we made a request; your cooperation was superb. Thank You

Clayton Odell, Editor
From beautiful flowers, to beautiful music, to delightful costumes, Mrs. Sue Stuart and the Chamber Singers, Girls' Ensemble, Girls' Chorus and A Cappella Choir all worked together to provide an evening of entertainment and fun at the Delta Community Center. Highlight of the evening was the announcement of Tony Tobar as this year's recipient of the coveted Jenny Lind Award and a check for $200.

CSF Adds Dunk Tank to Annual Carnival

Arranging balloons, Jeanne Dale picks one out for an anxious young girl.

Anne Gerry and Rachelle Dias pick the lucky winner for the cake walk.

Eying the prizes at the Prize Booth, two kids dig out their tickets for Clayton Odell, Cindy Duquette, and Ms. Arce.

Laura Grossman makes a deal with a customer as she and Travis Thoms sell tickets in the Ticket Booth.

Teresa Beasley looks intense as she paints the face of a young girl.

Mark Gursky supervises as a young girl tries her best to win a fish in the Fish Toss.
Mr. Smith helps his son shoot corks for a win as the rest of his family watches.

Kathy Hilburn is not stopped by broken leg, nor crutches, for she is determined to win in the Cake Walk.

Jennifer Stromberg, Maria Diwald, and a small boy wait for a big win as the Wheel of Fortune turns.

Sherri Meckes attends to a customer at the Clown Toss. Looks like we're going to have a winner here!

Jared Odell and Adrian Rhodes take a break and blow up balloons for the Dart Toss.

Looking at the expression on Ms. Canepa's face that water is cold, and she's just about to take a quick dip in the Dunk Tank!

Cindy Jones and Tami Armstrong are surrounded by balloons, and take a break to smile for a quick picture.
Students 'Get Wild' at Annual Barn Dance

Randy Linscheid, David Martin, Mark Shelton, Sonny Gepilano, Albert Hernandez, and Matt Curtis charge into the hay when the doors open.

Sean McCauley and friends 'get wild' as Sean gets thrown into the hay.

Dana Wallace and Jason Washburn throw a fellow student into the hay as another gets covered by it.

It's not enough to just throw people in the hay, why not throw hay in the people?

Tannis Shultz was selected as FFA Sweetheart for 1986-87.

Enjoying a dance together, the students circle the centerpiece during the annual Barn Dance.

Paul Witt, Bill Wooten, Jeff Hochderffer, and Jenny Freeman begin to cover an unsuspecting Jeff Hurd with the hay.
Some students really get into the swing of things at the Barn Dance as is demonstrated by the young man soaring.

Tara Clark, and Dave Pearson slide into the hay as Cheryl Price, Phil Rodriguez, Ryan Ng, and Tracy Bennett follow.

Tannis Shultz is all smiles even though in a few seconds she'll be lying face down in the hay.

Casting off her earthly bonds, Dana Wallace soars in for a graceful (?) landing.

Anna Dominguez and a friend relax for a moment during the dance.

The ancient ritual dance of the hay god seems to be the favorite here.

Oh my god! It's attack of the killer hay! (With a little help from it's friends).

Because last year was definitely a year of change for the staff at Liberty, this year has been one of adaption. Not only has the staff had to adapt to all the changes of last year, they also have to adapt to the changes now. The first major change to affect the school was the arrival of Mr. Philip White in July as our new superintendent. For the first time ever, the mentor teachers (Mr. Bill Batze, Mr. Rolla Lewis, Miss Reta Pippette, and Mr. Vic Thornhill) were responsible for the orientation of the new teachers. The mentor teachers hosted a day long session to acquaint the new teachers with various school policies, with a tour of the campus, and with necessary paper work. The new teachers were provided with lunch at El Camino. New to the staff this year were Mr. Alex Aiello, Reading I, World History, English I, and coach of Frosh Football and Golf; Mr. Greg Ciapponi, World History, U.S. History, and JV Volleyball Coach; Ms. Sharon Cannon, Typing I, You and the Law, Singles Survival, and Math I; Mrs. Labelle Foster, Practical Spanish, Math I/BL; Ms. Mary Guise, Life Science, Earth Science, Physical Science, and assistant Swimming Coach; Mr. Blake Hunrick, Counselor, World History, U.S. History, Psychology for Living, and Driver’s Education Instructor; Mrs. Marsha King, Intro to Algebra, Algebra 1A, and Plane Geometry; Mr. Jerry Lilley, P.E. and Head Varsity Football Coach; Mrs. Seisia Rounds, Senior English, English Skills 2, English Skills 3, and Rally Squad Advisor; Mr. Jim Sanford, Opportunity and Independent Study, Cross Country Coach; Ms. Joy Sweeney, On Your Own, Foods 2, 3, Beginning Chef, and FHA Advisor. New to the classified staff were Roger Wallace and Jim Estenson, custodians; and Delia Stone, textbook, AV, Duplication Clerk. Retiring from the district this school year are Mr. Bill Snow, SIP Coordinator (22 years of service); Mrs. Barbara Clark, Cafeteria Manager (22 years of service); Mrs. Alta Murphy, Adult Education Secretary; Mary Sanchez, Cafeteria Personnel; Serafin Reis, Custodian; and Joe Hernandez, Custodian. The physical changes in the campus were at first subtle and then overwhelming as the jv softball diamond was ripped out, black-topped over, and built upon as portable city II began to take shape. With nine new portables and the relocation of seven more, the area to the east of Nash Hall began to look like a mini-campus all its own. This building and relocation phase was scheduled to be completed by the opening of the school on August 31. The county vocational plans that were only plans became reality when the portables that were to handle the program arrived and were set up. With the start of school in September, the vocational students arrived and quickly became a part of the school. This next school year will see a major change as a “Walk-Through” will be initiated. Everyone planning to attend Liberty will be required to go through this orientation and registration procedure with a parent or guardian. A series of booths will be set up to explain different programs. Students will pick up class schedules and locker assignments, have their school picture taken, buy their student body card and yearbook, and have their parents educated as to what the school has to offer. With the addition of the new classrooms some services would be consolidated as renovation was scheduled for C and D wings. Teachers were preparing for the move by tagging materials and equipment.
